

Director of Health & Counseling Services

The Director of Health & Counseling Services will be responsible for the development, implementation and evaluation of a broad-based Health and Wellness Education program promoting wellness, health education and prevention efforts. The Director builds relationships with internal and external constituencies, and ensures compliance with all counseling standards, medical standards and protocols appropriate to the departments. The Director is responsible for the maintaining professional standards for all staff and keeps student health and wellness as the primary focus. The Director of Health & Counseling Services is responsible for staff supervision, strategic planning, budget management, marketing, patient care, compliance and protocol development.

Position reports to the Dean of Students and is Full-time (twelve months), Exempt

For more information on the position description and to apply for the position, please visit <https://work.jwu.edu>.