

Portland State University
Student Affairs – Center for Student Health and Counseling
Nurse Manager

The Center for Student Health and Counseling (SHAC) at Portland State University invites applications for a Nurse Manager position. This is a FT 12-month, fixed term unranked position. The Nurse Manager is a supervisory position in the Center for Student Health and Counseling. This position provides leadership and supervision of the nurses, medical assistants, and the medical lab technician, and coordinates the functioning of the medical services for the Center.

Salary Range:

$65,000-$75,000 plus an excellent benefits package which includes medical & dental health coverage, generous retirement and vacation packages, and tuition reduction for employees and their dependants at all Oregon University System Institutions.

To Apply:

For complete job description, minimum qualifications, and how to apply go to:

http://www.pdx.edu/hr/faculty_administrative_openings

(Positions are listed alphabetically by department. Look for Student Health and Counseling)

Review of applications will begin August 15th, 2009, and will continue until finalists are identified.

Correspondence will be conducted primarily by e-mail. PSU is an AA/EO institution and welcomes applications from diverse candidates and candidates who support diversity. We are located in downtown Portland, Oregon's most diverse community, and seek to meet the needs of an increasingly diverse student population through our curriculum, research, and community service activities. We are a public institution enrolling almost 25,000 students, with about 23% ethnic minorities.