

The University of Tennessee at Martin
Staff Counselor

Position Description:

The Staff Counselor is responsible for providing psychotherapy (primarily individual, with some group, and couples), outreach, program development, crisis intervention, and consultation services to the university community. The preferred candidate will be able to provide assessment, counseling and psychotherapy to university students. Thirty percent of the position is dedicated to substance abuse prevention and programming. The Staff Counselor position is a ten (10) month, flex year position. Duties include maintaining accurate documentation, and assisting with the development and implementation of departmental goals and objectives. The position requires some evening work and some travel to the four extended campuses to provide counseling services.

Qualifications:

A master's degree is required in counseling or equally appropriate field with experience in the college setting. Licensure at the master's level as a mental health practitioner (e.g., L.P.C.) is required. The successful candidate must demonstrate an appreciation for this position and be able to work within our office environment, so as to promote a healthy working environment conducive to the smooth operation of our service.

Experience:

Three years of experience working with college students as a counselor in a comparable or similar setting is ideal. Salary range is commensurate with education and experience.

Position begins August 1, 2009. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Candidates should send an electronic application to include cover letter, resume, three letters of recommendation, graduate transcripts, and Tennessee License to jtrice@utm.edu.
